

PAUSE

“BE STILL AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD...” PSALM 46:10

REJOICE

Think of a time you felt JOY this week...

How God has answered prayer in your life recently...

What are you grateful for...

REFLECT ON PSALM 121

What is the big idea behind this? _____

Pastor Cam said: “God does not ignore our pain and brokenness, but his enters into it. God is close, God is near, and if there's a disconnect, it's on our end, not his.” What is your response to this?

“Faithful worship: that's a form of rebellion, protest, resistance to all the darkness, brokenness, violence, all the perspectives and attitudes of a broken world. And when we faithfully worship, that is a form of pushing back.” What do you think about that?

REFLECT ON PSALM 121

What words or phrases stood out to you? _____

REFLECT ON PSALM 121

What did the Spirit say to you? _____

ASK (asking God to help us and others)

In light of this passage, what small thing could I ask God to provide today? _____

What big thing am I asking God for throughout this season of life? _____

Turning my attention to the world, who is someone else (person, group, community, nation)...in light of this passage, what do I want to ask God for? _____

YIELD (to God's will in our lives)

What do you need to surrender to God? _____

What will you do? _____

How can we help you or pray for you? _____

Who else should you tell, what you just told us? _____